

Certificate of disaster victim notification (risai todokede shomeisho)

This certificate prove that people who had their properties such as car, furniture, etc... damaged by this heavy rain disaster notified. However, this certificate does not prove the fact or situation of disaster.

This certificate may be required to be submitted to insurance company or financial institution regarding the damage of the properties such as car, furniture, etc...